Read the following passage and then choose the correct answer for (1 - 4).

A man was tired of living in his old house in the country and wanted to sell it and buy a better one. For several months, he tried to find a buyer on his own, putting up signs, talking to neighbours, and even putting it for sale in the small local newspapers, but nothing worked. No one seemed interested. At last, he decided to solve the problem by using an estate agent.

Within a few days, the estate agent placed an advertisement in a popular and expensive magazine, complete with a wonderful description of the house's unique features including its peaceful surroundings, lovely gardens and other details that made the house sound almost like a dream house.

After the owner had read the advertisement, he hastened to telephone the estate agent and said to him, " I'm sorry, Mr Johns, but I've decided not to sell my house after all.
